Numb. 4709

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday June 24. to Tuesday June 27. 1710.

Warſaw, June 1. N. S.

ON the 28th of the laſt Month the King ſet out from Villa Nova towards Marienburg in Pruſſia, and dined that day at Billani, two Leagues diſtant from this City: After Dinner the foreign Miniſters, who attended the King thither, having taken their Leave, his Majeſty proceeded by Water towards Thorn. On the 29th General Fleming left this Place, in order to fall down the River after his Majeſty, who hath appointed very ſhort Stages, that the Court may join him in his Paſſage. Yeſterday the Imperial, Daniſh and Dutch Miniſters began their Journey to Marienburg, where they are to be accommodated with Lodgings, at the Charge of his Majeſty, according to the uſual Cuſtom of this Court, when the King makes any Progreſs. Yeſterday a Courier arrived here from Riga, with Diſpatches for his Majeſty, and without making any ſtay in this City, ſet out immediately for Thorn. We are not acquainted with the Contents of his Diſpatches; but ſome conjecture he brings Advice of the Surrender of Wybourg; but others ſuppoſe he is ſent from Prince Menzikoff, to ſignifie to his Majeſty the Intention of that Prince, to give him an Interview at Marienburg. Letters from Vilna, of the 19th of the laſt Month, ſay, that the Czar was ſailed from Peterſburg, in order to be preſent at the Siege of Wybourg. The Breach of the Place being already practicable, Preparations were making for the general Aſſault. His Czariſh Majeſty's Life-Guards were arrived at Petersburg, and had Orders to embark with the greateſt Expedition. Theſe Advices add, that the Muſcovite Army before Riga had hitherto only continued the Bombardment of that Place, and had not yet inveſted the Place in form. The Troops, that were quartered in Lithuania had Orders to march to that Camp; and Prince Menzikoff had publiſhed an Edict, forbidding them on Pain of Death to exact any further Contributions. It is ſaid, that notwithſtanding this Prohibition, a Muſcovite Commiſſary had demanded Contributions at Vilna, for which the great General of Lithuania ordered him to be immediately impriſoned, and it is ſuppoſed he will undergo the Puniſhment denounced againſt ſuch Offenders. Letters from Leopold of the ſame Date ſay, that they had Intelligence from the Governor of Miedzyboza, on the Frontier of the Country of the Coſſacks, that the King of Sweden had not then left Bender, but was joined by a conſiderable Body of Tartars: But it is probable theſe Reports are only deſigned to alarm the Muſcovites, and to oblige them to draw their Forces towards the Confines of Turky.

Copenhagen, June 14. N. S. On the 12th Inſtant a Daniſh Frigat arrived here from the East-Sea, with Advice that the Swediſh Squadron was retired into Carlſcroon, and had detached fifteen Men of War, the largeſt being of forty Guns, towards Finland. This Frigat confirms the former Advice that the Swediſh Squadron had brought from the Coaſts of Pomerania about ſixty Sail of Ships laden with Proviſions and other Neceſſaries. The Daniſh Squadron under the Command of Admiral Guldenleuw is now under Sail towards the East Sea. We are told that the Swedes have twenty five Ships of the Line of Battel well manned, and are reſolved to come out of their Port and engage the Daniſh Squadron as ſoon as it appears on their Coaſt. The Daniſh Squadron is not yet compleatly manned. Thoſe arrived from Norway want three thouſand of their expected Complement; the Squadron is to conſiſt of about twenty Ships of the Line of Battel, beſides ſome Frigats and other Veſſels of War that are already in the East-Sea.

Berlin, June 14. N. S. On the 19th Inſtant the Margrave Albert went from hence to dine with the King at Charlottenburg, which was the firſt time that he ſtirred Abroad ſince his late Indiſpoſition. The next Night their Pruſſian Majeſties lodged at Rukleben, at which Place they dined the day following with the Prince and Princeſs-Royal, and in the Evening returned to Charlottenburg, where the Court ſtill continues. The King ſeems very well ſatisfied with the Behaviour of the States-General, in relation to the Differences that are depending between his Majeſty and the Prince of Naſſau-Frieze, and it is expected that the next Poſt will bring Advice that the Affair of Loo and Deeren is determined in favour of his Pruſſian Majeſty. It is believed his Pruſſian Majeſty will ſpeedily make a Journey into Holland. Yeſterday Monſieur Rantzaw, the Daniſh Envoy, received his Maſter's Ratification of a Contract lately concluded with a Jew of this City for four thouſand Horſes; but this Merchant making ſeveral Pretences that he might be excuſed from the Performance of this Agreement, his Daniſh Majeſty hath been pleaſed to declare that he would be ſatisfied with half that number: Notwithſtanding this, the Court having formerly prohibited, on very ſevere Penalties, the Exportation of Horſes out of his Majeſty's Dominions, the Jew raiſes new Difficulties, and endeavours to diſengage himſelf from the Agreement. Several Officers and Domeſticks belonging to the Duke of Courland, paſſed through this City on the 11th Inſtant, in their way to Courland from Bareith. His Pruſſian Majeſty appears very well ſatisfied with the Reception of his Nephew, the Duke of Courland, when he returned into his Dominions, and the Civilities that were ſhewn him by Prince Menzikow and the Muſcovites. Letters from Warſaw of the 6th Inſtant adviſe us of the King of Poland's Arrival at Marienburg; and add, that the Saxons, who were quartered in that part of Pruſſia which belongs to the Crown of Poland, were in a Readineſs to march; that the Muſcovites, who are to be commanded by General Janus, were aſſembling near Sendomir; and that the Army of the Crown was encamped near Borſiyce. Letters from Mittau of the ſame Date ſay, that the Muſcovites had deſigned to attack the Suburbs of Riga on that Day, under the Command of Brigadier Staff; and that Prince Menzikow, before his Departure, had cauſed ſeveral Redoubts to be built along the Duna, to prevent any Succours from coming into the Town by Water.

Falmouth, June 19. Yeſterday ſailed the Queen and Union Packet-boats for Lisbon, with ſeveral Soldiers and Officers on Board; and alſo a Galley that hath lain here ſome time bound for Cadiz. This Day arrived the Riſing Sun, James Clarkland Commander from Alicant, but laſt from Lisbon, of and for London, who reports that the Mercury Packet-boat was arrived in the River of Lisbon, before he ſailed from that Port; and alſo that Captain Peck had ſent in thither a French Merchantman as Prize.

Falmouth, June 22. Yeſterday her Majeſty's Ships the Yarmouth, Aſſurance, Monk and York appeared off of our Harbour. The Aſſurance, commanded by Captain Paſſinger,